HOPES OF PEACE HAVE VANISHED

German Attitude Causes No Surprise in London.

NEWSPAPERS ARE SARCASTIC

General View in the British Press is That Unless Germany Was Desirous of Peace the Debate in the Reichstag Would Not Have Taken Place.

London, Dec. 10.—The speech in the reichstag of the imperial chancellor, Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg, reviewing the military, political and economic progress of events, and his reply to a Socialist interpellation declining to inflame peace negotiations were the feature of the news throughout Europe.

Following closely Premier Asquith's somewhat similar reply to a question in the house of commons by Philip Snowden, Socialist, the chancellor's speech has completely dashed any hopes the peace advocates may have held of an early termination of the war.

It caused no surprise, however, to the great bulk of the people here who, like the governments, believe in the ultimate victory of the entente allies and express the determination to fight until victory is attained.

As far as the united allied countries are concerned seemingly the only change desired is one which would insure a more vigorous prosecution of the war, but this, like peace, will have to await events.

Owing to the fact that the reports of the German imperial chancellor's address in the reichstag had only been partly received when the London morning newspapers went to press there is no general comment on it. These newspapers which do print editorials, however, adopt a sarcastic tone at the chancellor's expense.

The general view is that unless Germany had desired peace the debate would not have occurred.

BRITISH LIFT DYESTUFF BAN

Americans Granted Opportunity to Import Supply.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Great Britain has announced its willingness to permit exportation from Germany of sufficient dyestuffs to supply the immediate needs of American industries.

Negotiations with Germany based upon this assurance, it was learned, have been begun informally by the state department to persuade the imperial government to permit the exportation of dyestuffs without receiving concessions, which it heretofore has demanded, of foodstuffs or cotton from the United States.

BRITAIN MAY DELAY POLL

Commons Asked to Postpone General Election.

London, Dec. 10.—A bill to continue the present parliament beyond the five-year period and postpone a general election during the war was introduced in the house of commons by Sir John Simon, secretary of state for home affairs.

The bill makes the life of the present parliament six instead of five years, extending it to Jan. 31, 1917.

ONE DEAD IN LABOR WAR

Two Other Men Seriously Wounded at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Dec. 10.—One man was shot and killed and two others badly wounded in an attack by five unidentified men here upon a squad of non-union painters, who were at work on a new annex to a local hospital.

In a statement to the police a nurse at the hospital said that she saw five men approach several of the painters and heard one of them say:

"No scab can work here." A few minutes later, she said, she heard several shots and saw one man fall. The five men escaped. The dead man was Joseph Shall, a non-union painter.

TEUTONS PLAN INVASION OF INDIA.

London, Dec. 10.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Rome says:

"According to indirect news from Constantinople Germany has abandoned her idea of the expedition against Egypt in favor of a great Turco-German expedition against India."

"The German project is to organize an army of 400,000 Turks with 100,000 Germans, commanded by Field Marshal von der Goltz."

VON BETHMANN-HOLLWEG

Says Germany is Willing to Discuss Peace Terms.

MUST COME FROM ENEMIES

German Chancellor Explains Attitude Toward Peace.

Berlin, Dec. 10.—The imperial German chancellor, Baron von Bethmann-Hollweg, refused to state possible terms of peace, in reply to the demand made by the German Socialists.

Instead, he made it plain to a great gathering in the reichstag that any peace proposals must come from Germany's enemies.

"If our enemies make peace proposals compatible with Germany's dignity and safety, then we shall always be ready to discuss them," he asserted.

And a moment later, continuing:

"This war can only be terminated by a peace which gives human certitude that it will not return."

He made it clear that, in his opinion, it would be folly for Germany to propose peace "so long as in the countries of our enemies the guilt and ignorance of statesmen are entangled with confusion and public opinion."

He asserted Germany's food supplies were sufficient and that her immense stores of copper were adequate for many years.

NOTE TO AUSTRIA IS CLEARLY DRAWN

Washington, Dec. 10.—The note the United States has sent to Austria-Hungary on the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona was based, it was learned, primarily on the virtual admission of the Austro-Hungarian admiralty in its official statement that the ship was torpedoed before all the passengers had been removed to a place of safety.

It was stated also that the position of the United States, as outlined in its communication asking reparation for American lives lost and assurances that such acts will not be repeated, is that no matter whether a merchantman stops upon the firing of a warning shot by a warship or after a pursuit all the passengers must be removed before the vessel is sunk.

BOLD ROBBERS GET $7,000

Enter Chicago Office and Bind Bookkeeper and Janitor.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Robbers entered a branch office of the Prudential Life Insurance company, bound and gagged a woman bookkeeper and the janitor and escaped with $7,000.

VILLA FORCES ARE ROUTED

Lose Three Hundred Killed in Fight Near Fronteras.

Douglas, Ariz., Dec. 10.—Three hundred Villa soldiers were killed, 100 taken prisoners and the remainder of the forces under General Jose Rodriguez dispersed, five miles north of Fronteras when General P. Elias Calles rushed in from the south to the rescue of the beleaguered Carranza detachment, under General Angel Flores, according to reports received here.

General Calles' report to General Alvaro Obregon, commander-in-chief of the Carranza armies, said that General Flores and his chief of staff, Colonel Nelson, an Englishman, were wounded, the latter seriously. The Carranza casualties were not given.

SPEECH DELAYS PEACE

(By United Press)

London, Dec. 10.—The chancellor's speech in the German Reichstag has put an end to peace discussions so far as Great Britain is concerned. Several high officials asserted that the declaration of the German chancellor showed even the most ardent pacifist to end the war was not in sight. London papers declared peace was more remote now than at any time since the war began. British officials bitterly resent the attempt of Von Bethmann-Hollweg to throw the responsibility for the continuance of the war upon the allies. They construed the chancellor's statement as an effort to appease the growing demand in Germany for peace.

FORCING ALLIES TO RETIRE

(By United Press)

Athens, Dec. 10.—The allies have continued their retreat toward the Greek border. Salonika dispatches reported the retirement of the French from Demirkapu, and declared the belief is growing that the expeditionary forces may abandon Serbian territory entirely. The Bulgarians are now hammering the Anglo-French forces along the entire front, forcing the allies to give way before the sheer weight of numbers and superiority in metal.

BRITISH RETREAT IS HALTED

(By United Press)

Amsterdam, Dec. 10.—The British in Mesopotamia have halted their retreat from Bagdad, and are making a successful stand at Kut-el-amara. The official statement from Constantinople indicated that the Turkish war office reported several attacks had been made by the British troops and declared all were repulsed.

HEARS OF REVOLT IN TRIPOLI

(By United Press)

Constantinople, Dec. 10.—Tripolitan natives have revolted, inflicting a crushing defeat on the Italian troops, according to information received here.

tion received here. The Italians reported they lost six hundred dead and wounded. The native tribesmen are reported within an hour's march of the city of Tripoli.

BATTLE MAY HAVE OCCURRED

(By United Press)

Athens, Dec. 10.—A naval battle may have occurred between Austrian and Italian squadrons off the Albanian coast, according to advices received here. The Italian squadron appeared while the Austrians were bombarding Sangiovanna De Nedus.

Fire Destroys Grains for Allies

(By United Press)

Erie, Pa., Dec. 10.—The fire which destroyed the three Anchor Line elevators also destroyed 550,000 bushels of grain consigned to the allies. The loss is estimated at $750,000. The state and government investigations are already on the scene to determine whether the fire was the result of a plot. The officials declared that spontaneous combustion was responsible for the blaze.

Wild Disorders in Burned City

(By United Press)

Petersburg, Va., Dec. 10.—Reports of wild disorders at Hopewell have reached here by courier following the failure of wire communication with that city which was destroyed by fire. The reports declare that two persons were shot and a negro lynched. The roads are jammed with refugees and sightseers. Plans are being made to rebuild the city. Many are on rescued belonging all night, guarding them from the looters.

Declared Not Guilty

(By United Press)

Antelope, Mont., Dec. 10.—Mrs. Minnie Euser, living ten miles south of here, was declared not guilty by the jury, after being tried for the murder of her brother-in-law, Tom Kern, who was killed by a shotgun at the Euser farm during the month of September.

Note to Austria An Ultimatum

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 10.—America's note to Austria on the Ancona was practically an ultimatum, it was learned on high authority here. It is understood the president also decided that Consul Von Bucker, at New York, must go. The evidence against him has been accumulating some time but action has been postponed.

It was stated on the highest authority that this country has placed itself in a position to sever diplomatic relations with Austria if its demands are not acceded to. An immediate reply is demanded.

War College Wants Big Army

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 10.—An increase in the United States standing army to 253,500 men is the recommendation of the army war college. The long awaited military reorganization plan provides for appropriations beginning with $503,000,000 next year and extending over eight years. It recommends a continental reserve army of 500,000 men and federal expenditure of only seven million dollars annually for militia.

Coal Shortage in Greece

(By United Press)

NAVY YARDS WILL BUILD WARSHIPS

Washington, Dec. 10.—Secretary Daniels announced that contracts for the construction of battleships Numbers 43 and 44, authorized by the last congress, have been awarded to the New York and Mare Island navy yards, respectively.

The bids were: New York, $7,699,925; Mare Island, $7,433,156. The decision to build the ships in the government yards was reached at a conference between President Wilson and Mr. Daniels.

Bids of all private builders exceeded the limit of cost fixed by congress. Bids for the two fleet submarines authorized by the last congress will be opened at the navy department Feb. 15.

Specifications for boats designed to have a surface speed of twenty-five knots have been sent to prospective bidders.

The new vessels will have a displacement of 1,300 tons, as compared with the 800-ton boats in commission and the 1,000-ton Schley, near completion.

PRESIDENT INDULGES IN FORD JOKE.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Finding three Fords and an automobile parked in front of the White House when he started for a motor ride inspired President Wilson to tell this one:

A man who owned a Ford was about to die. His last request was that the machine be buried with him. When asked to explain he said: "Well, that little old car has pulled me out of many a deep hole and it may pull me out of this one."

BANK BROKE FROM OUTSIDE

Federal Officials Say Shortage Proves Necessity for Bonding.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Comptroller Williams issued a statement declaring the closed First National bank of Casselton, N. D., "was broken from the outside."

"The defalcations of its president and cashier," said the comptroller's statement, "exceeded its total capital and surplus."

The case, he said, was an argument in favor of his proposal to require national bank officers to give surety bonds. The bank has a capital of $50,000. The president and cashier are under arrest.

London, Dec. 10.—Bulgarians, offered by Germans, are fiercely attacking the allies in Macedonia, according to the Times' Macedonian correspondent, who regards the situation as grave.

THREE HUNDRED HOUSES BURNED

Flames Almost Destroy New Industrial City.

POWDER WORKS IN DANGER

Hopewell, Va., on the outskirts of which a large powder plant of the Du Pont Company is situated, suffers a loss of about one million dollars.

Hopewell, Va., Dec. 10.—This boom town of 25,000 persons, grown up since last summer with the great new explosive plant of the Du Pont Powder company, was almost wiped off the map by a fire which started in a restaurant and did property damage estimated at considerably more than $1,000,000.

The Du Pont works, outside of the settlement, completely escaped damage, although for a time they were seriously threatened.

Scenes of wild disorder accompanied the fire and citizens are said to have lynched a negro for looting. There was no loss of life otherwise, however, and only a few minor injuries were reported.

Martial law was enforced by seven militia companies brought to the scene by a special train under orders from Governor Stuart.

While many of the buildings in the eastern section of the town were saved by a strong wind blowing in the opposite direction some 300 houses were destroyed and thousands of persons left homeless.

Special trains were run to Petersburg and Richmond carrying men, women and children to find shelter.

Available fire-fighting apparatus was utterly inadequate, the flames eating their way through the flimsy frame structures thrown up during the early days of the town last summer like so much tinder.

Several times sparks set fire to mounds of the explosive factory, but the flames which followed were quickly extinguished.

THREE BANDITS HOLD UP ST. PAUL BANK

St. Paul, Dec. 10.—Three young men strolled into the Western State bank, Dale street and University avenue, stuck revolvers under the noses of three employees, took $2,027.27 and fled with two companions, who had been waiting outside in a motor car. Two men are held by the Minneapolis police, declared to have confessed taking part in the holdup, and the authorities of the Twin Cities were confident it would not be long before their companions joined them behind the bars.

A suspicious landlady, who wondered why her new roomers had $500 in paper and silver money tucked away in their pillow slips, and two revolvers in the mattresses, gave the Minneapolis police the tip that led to the arrest of Frank Lohr, twenty-one years old, and James Lowe, also known as Frank Dixon, twenty-two, who say they came to Minneapolis recently from Boston. They said they were two of the three who entered the bank.

NOVEMBER RECORD BREAKER

Exports for Month Largest in Country's History.

New York, Dec. 10.—Exports from the port of New York during the month of November exceeded $180,000,000, the largest amount in the history of the port, according to estimates by custom house officials.

Not only was the total volume of goods shipped from here a record, but the classes which made up the amount were more diversified than usual.

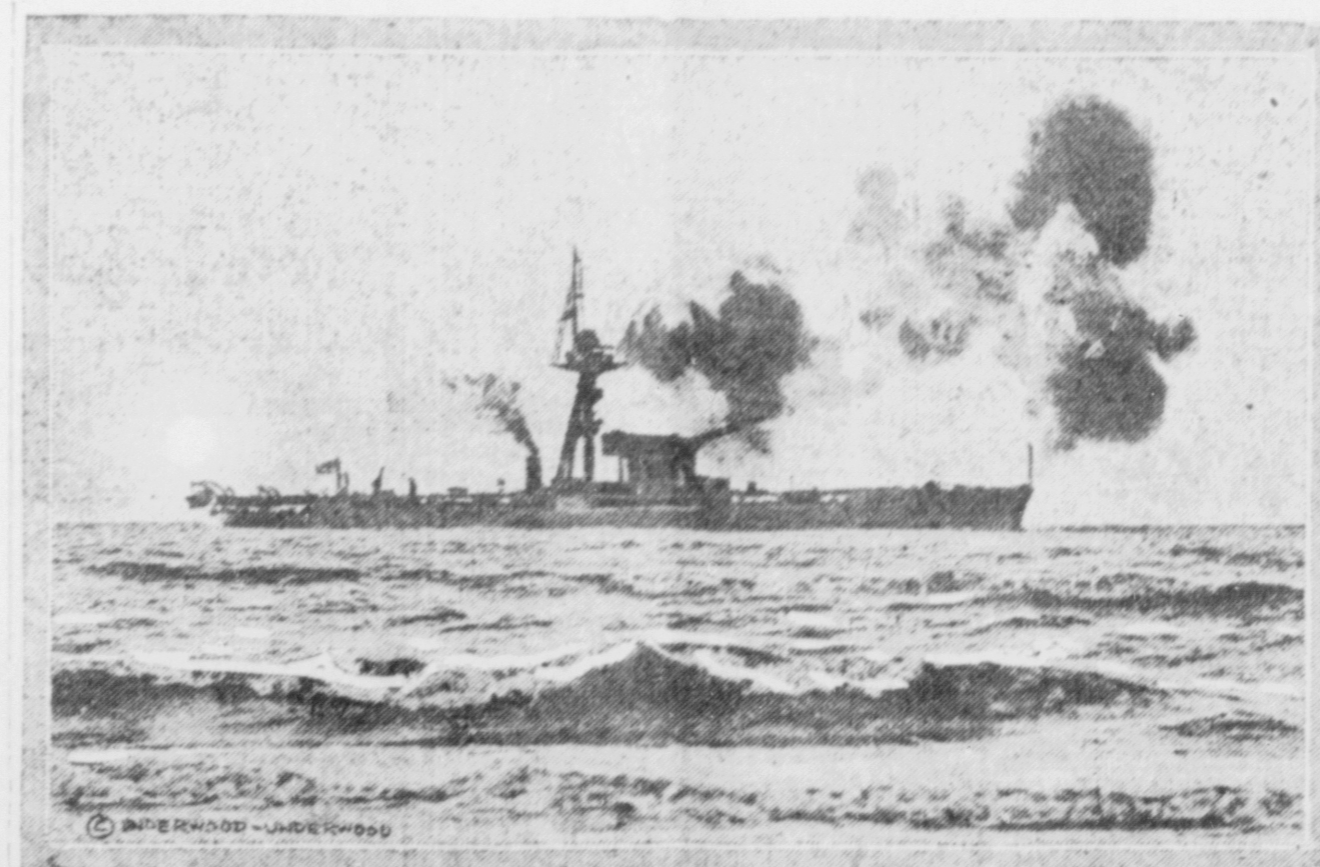

Foodstuffs and explosives formed a considerable portion of the November exports, with iron and steel bars and fabricated iron and steel also reaching a large total.

RESERVOIR IS ABANDONED

Great Northern Halts Big Construction Work at Devils Lake.

Devils Lake, N. D., Dec. 10.—After establishing a camp on the shore of Sweetwater lake near this city, building a sidetrack from the main line of the railroad to the camp, the Great Northern has abandoned its plan for the construction of a big reservoir there. It was proposed to establish a reservoir capable of storing up a tremendous supply of water, the plans providing for a structure 100x250x20 feet.

New British Monitor Bombarding German Base at Ostend

This is the first picture ever taken of the new British monitors with their powerful 15-inch guns in action. Very little has been heard of this part of the English navy. Each monitor carries one big 15-inch gun, mounted on a turret. The picture was taken off LaPanne, Belgium.

WOMAN'S REALM

RED CROSS SEALS

The Brainerd Musical Club Will Begin Their Sale Shortly—Half of Proceeds Remain Here

Within a day or two the women of the Brainerd Musical club and others interested, will begin the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals. The support of the public is urged, as half the proceeds are kept in Brainerd for the Associated Charities fund.

Last year Brainerd was a successful competitor in the contest in which the services of tuberculosis or baby welfare nurses for a month were the prizes. It was deemed better to take the money rather than the work of a highly specialized nurse for a short time, the idea being to add to the sum until there was enough to warrant engaging a general visiting nurse for a longer time. This was done, the public health association returning $150 of the $159.60 receipts from Brainerd sales. This formed the nucleus of the sum which has made it possible to engage Miss Puckering.

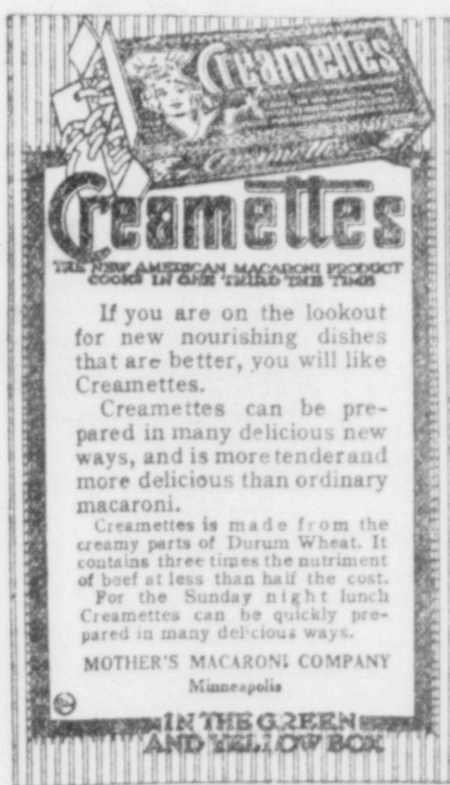

This year, having our own Visiting Nurse, it is equally important to increase the amount at her disposal for relief work, during the cold weather when the application for help are always heavy. The public response to the tag day appeal was so generous that the women who are to sell seals feel sure that they will have no difficulty in disposing of a large number.

WHAT WAR MOVES MEAN

By J. W. T. Mason, for United Press

General Von Bethmann-Hollweg's anxiously awaited peace speech in the reichstag today has turned out to be an extremely clever maneuver to throw upon the Allies the delicate task of being first, state what they are fighting for. The German chancellor is thus trying to get the better position for his country in the eyes of neutrals by suggesting that responsibility for continuing the war rests on the quadruple entente.

The allies are accused of being actuated still by the desire to crush Germany, which they publicly proclaimed at the outbreak of the war. The chancellor thus intimates that the Germans are in reality fighting a defensive war, and it is, therefore, all the more necessary that German's enemies shall be the first to break the silence concerning an acceptable basis for a compromise.

The speech is that of a bargainer, but a bargainer who does not know how much he can get, and who wants the other side to come forth with suggestions first. Nevertheless, there is evidence in the speech that the chancellor feels the peace negotiations, when they begin, must center about the future status of Belgium, Alsace-Lorraine, Serbia and Poland. This, in all probability, is the reason for the large attention paid in the address to the question of rights of small nationalities. The chancellor seems bent on trying to suggest that, since nobody respects small nationalities, the peace conference cannot be limited in its method of regulating their future.

By referring to the British administration of India and Egypt and the attitude of the Allies toward Greece, the chancellor challenges Great Britain to prove how she can consider herself the champion of small nations. The emphasis laid upon the German population of Alsace implies a belief that a critical part of the peace discussion must relate to the future ownership of France's lost provinces. The speech throughout is not only an able defensive document, but its defense has been combined cleverly with an offensive threat of Germany's power to continue the war as long as her enemies. The speech does not in itself bring peace any nearer. It will do so, however, if it fulfills its purpose of inciting the Allies to declare what they are fighting for.

Bare Feet With Grecian Negligee

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for United Press)

'Round the world milady goes To devise her boudoir clothes; Often she reclines at ease In a coat and pants Chinese; Off an Oriental shawl Is her only robe at all; Japanese kimono too Will unfold her, ray of hue; Grecian robes, she'll often wear 'em; Also trousers a la harem. Thus to view the exploitation Of her robes of relaxation Is, without exaggeration, Geographic education.

New York, Dec. 10—Just bear in mind that bare feet are the essential accessories of the newest Grecian negligee. At last, they are almost bare since silver sandals are almost their sole covering. A lovely model of silver gauze and scarlet is offered upon the sartorial shrine of 1916. The skirt is of silver gauze and the short tunic is of silver figured in scarlet with scarlet binding around the low neck and flowing Grecian sleeves. A fillet of silver and scarlet at the head and silver sandals at the feet prove extreme attractions of this artistic new negligee. Helen of Troy may have had something on the modern maiden thus attired, but it's barely possible that she had any less on her. Given an oblong shawl or gold embroidered gauze, or even a vividly embellished Carmen shawl of silk and fringe and, with a little time and two pins, any bright young thing can swathe her figure in the luring draperies of a bewitching and original negligee.

Borrowing an oriental pattern for occidental material, Miss Up To Date now wears in the privacy of her boudoir (or if she hasn't any, the privacy of her hall bedroom will do), a coat and pair of trousers like perfect ladies affect in China. Miss Up To Date's aren't real Chinese embroidered ones, however. Goodness, no! They were worn last season. This year her's are made of chiffon velvet banded around the bottom of the trousers and the coat in gold or silver gauze.

If you are simply panting to be comfortable, you can certainly be all that in these newest party negligees. If however, you yearn to be adorably cuddly and feminine in evat at once in one of the dainty pastel tinted chiffon one piece kimono edged all around and up and down in fluffy white swansdown.

You'll look like an idealized powder puff. That will be sure to take the shine off of any other negligee worn in your vicinity.

sion at St. Paul's Episcopal church assembled last evening. B. J. Broady sang a beautiful solo. The theme was on the danger of putting off acceptance of the Christian religion until the spiritual faculties became atrophied and all desire lost. This was illustrated by the parable of the lover. Amendment of life was then spoken of as the necessary accompaniment of repentance and faith, the story of Zacchaeus' illustrating the point.

Tonight the subject will be "Sanctification and the Reasons for Baptism and Confirmation." An illustrated gospel lecture on the life of Christ will be given. All are welcome to the service.

JUNK DEALER IS ARRESTED

Isebell Borkon Caught by Sheriff and Special Agent of Northern Pacific Railway

WAGON LOADED WITH BRASS

After Arrest he Attempts to Escape, Whips up Horse and Dives Through Barb Wire Fence

Isebell Borkon, junk dealer of Brainerd, is lodged in the county jail nursing a bruised and scratched nose and thereby hangs a tale of some interest for the other actors of the drama are Sheriff Claus A. Theorin and Special Agent E. J. Williams, Duluth, of the Northern Pacific railway detective service.

On advice from Williams, the sheriff was in readiness this morning and both walked down Oak street to Nineteenth street and halted at the home of Hans A. Solberg, 323 South-east Nineteenth street. At that place the second floor is occupied by Isebell Borkon.

Borkon was seen driving from the yard and his wagon appeared to be heavily loaded. He "giddapped" his horse and ambled east on the Oak street road. With the assistance of Clyde E. Parker, sheriff and detective, were motored out to a point near Mahoney's farm, where they caught up with the junk dealer.

The sheriff and special agent halted him and examined his wagon which was loaded to the guards with brass. There was also a trunk, loaded too, in the outfit.

Borkon did not give any intelligible replies as to what he was doing with the brass or where he was going to and he was ordered to turn about and drive back to town.

He complied with the command. As he passed the Dodd farm Borkon sized up his following. The sheriff appeared to be a fat man and no candidate for a foot race and Williams was no slouch either.

At the corner Borkon whipped his lone horse like mad. With his whiskers streaming in the wind and beating the horse to a pulp, Borkon and the brass laden outfit careened south on the corner road.

Williams gave a shout. Things happened in quick succession and witnesses say it looked funnier than a Keystone comedy at the Best theatre. Williams ran 100 yards in ten seconds, caught up with the horse, leaped aboard and grabbed the lines.

As he boarded the swaying rig, Borkon leaped out on the other side and made for the woods. Sheriff Theorin came up puffing and as Williams struggled to subdue the runaway team, Theorin made after Borkon. The junk peddler is no youth, but he was agile just the same. He tore through a barb wire fence, going through head-first and tearing his clothes and scratching his nose. He made so big a hole through the obstruction that the sheriff had no difficulty in going through a close second. Twenty-five feet from the woods he caught up to Borkon and captured him.

"Why did you run away?" asked the sheriff.

"Me scared," said Borkon, as he wiped the blood off his nose. Borkon was lodged in jail and sheriff, deputy sheriff and detective labored long in removing the brass from the wagon to the sheriff's room in the court house.

It makes a big pile on the floor, some 1,500 to 1,800 pounds, valued at approximately from $200 to $300. There are heavy engine brasses, rod bushings, etc., and many of the pieces have Northern Pacific railway numbers and marks on them, making identification an easy matter.

This morning General Foreman H. A. Lyddon was making an inventory of the brass, etc. It is said that brass and copper has been missed from the Northern Pacific shops and that watch has been kept on where the leaks occurred.

Borkon was searched at the county jail, and he resented this action on the part of Deputy Sheriff John D. Gile. Borkon refused to make any statement. His hearing is expected to be held Saturday morning in municipal court.

COSTS MORE TO BE SICK

Quinine Hops to $2.25 an Ounce, Glycerine is Way Up, Carbolic Acid up Near $2.50 Lb.

"If you are going to be sick, better put it off until after the European war," said Dick Johnson of Johnson's Pharmacy, in discussing the advancing costs of drugs.

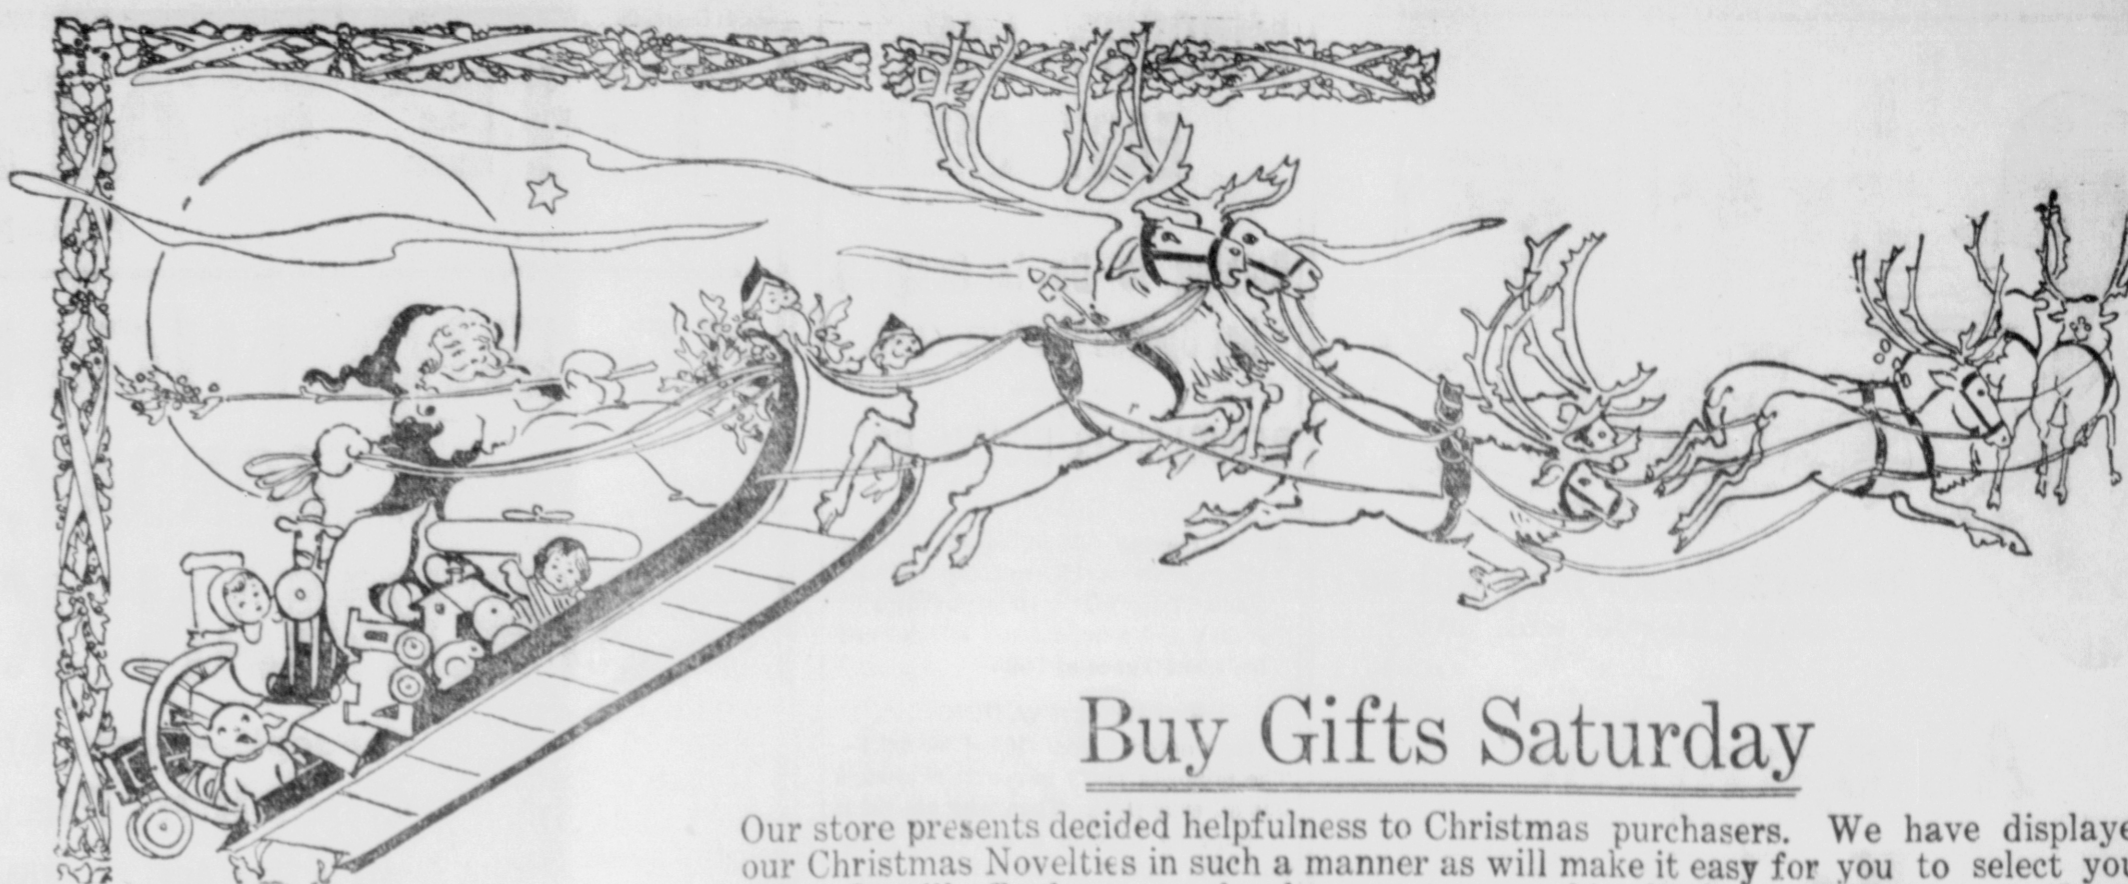

"It's a caution how the prices of some articles are climbing. Epsom salts, cod liver oil, sarsaparilla, carbolic acid, quinine, all cost more. Carbolic acid once cost 25 cents a pound and now it's up to $2.50 a pound. Quinine is getting up to what the south paid for it in civil war days, $2.25 an ounce, wholesale. From all indications it will cost a man more to be sick these days than ever before.

"Of course, I'm just preaching, for it's only a day or so ago that I was sick at the house, but I didn't stay sick long," said Mr. Johnson, as he continued his study of revised price lists.

AUTO AND GARAGE BURNED TO GROUND

R. C. Klinkenberg Loses Studebaker Car, Strong Wind Spreads Embers, Endangering Barrows

SCHOOL BOARD HAS MEETING

Barrows Mining Co. Installs Telephone, News Notes of Town of Barrows in Detail

Barrows, Minn., Dec. 10.—Monday evening fire of an unknown origin completely destroyed the auto garage, the seven passenger Studebaker car, a number of tools, lumber and other articles belonging to R. C. Klinkenberg about 10 o'clock in the evening when he heard a crackling noise outside, springing up to the door found the garage already a mass of flames. He immediately summoned aid and soon many of the towns people were on the scene to assist in checking the fire, which with the aid of a strong wind blowing had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the building. The strong wind carried burning embers several blocks, and for a time it was feared other buildings were in danger. However, the building being dry as tinder was soon consumed by the flames and fell to the ground, after which a stream of water from a hose attached to a pump almost put out the fire. It is understood the building and contents were partially covered by insurance.

A. Lamont of the Model City, Duluth, was here looking over some timber adjoining town and visited the Rowley mine on Tuesday.

The Barrows Mining Co. are having a telephone installed in their office at the Rowley mine this week.

Richard Johnson, of Ironton, visited with friends in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Whitehouse and daughter Gladys and Miss Mae Staples spent Tuesday evening at the Peck home.

John Peck is engaged in trapping in this vicinity. He has already secured quite a number of furs.

John Wahl and J. G. Andersen, of Duluth, visited the Rowley mine and transacted business here the last of the week.

Ed Sinyey of Brainerd, was a business caller in town Friday. He visited the Rowley mine.

Edw. Anderson, of Brainerd, representing the John Wahl Candy Co., of Duluth, transacted business in town Friday.

Charles P. Meyers, secretary of the Barrows Mining Co., and Jacob Stein of Duluth, were here Monday looking over the Rowley mine and attended to other business matters in town.

G. R. Whitehouse returned from North Dakota Saturday morning after spending several months there working at the carpenter trade.

Mrs. A. Ring and daughter Selma left for Duluth Saturday where it is understood they will spend the winter months.

Miss Mae Staples, Mrs. E. S. Klasey and Mrs. G. R. Whitehouse were Brainerd business callers Saturday.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Best

"Hypocrites" in four parts, is a fine symbolic study of what the struggle of truth means to the world.

Gabriel, an ascetic monk of olden time, labors to perfect an image of Truth, consecrating himself with fasting and prayer, and keeping his work a secret. One monk, bolder than the rest, spies upon him, but is blinded by the light of Truth and can see nothing.

The unveiling of the statue is made a Pete Day, and all gather to listen to the address of the Abbot, who himself consents to unveil Gabriel's gift. The covering is pulled aside, and there stands a figure of Truth, naked. Unable to see with the eyes of the spirit, the people, with one accord, rush upon Gabriel, and kill him. Only two can look upon Truth unflinchingly, a little child, and the woman who loves Gabriel. A Magdalene looks upon the statue and falls prostrate, weeping bitterly. The woman who loves him covers the dead Gabriel with her veil, which turns from white to black as she bends over him. Nearby the Magdalene crouches.

This forms the prologue of the story, which, told in a reverent and deeply religious vein, makes an indelible impression and prepares the spectator for the modern scenes which are the main theme.

Sherman Kelly Coming

Sherman Kelly and his big clever stock company will play a week's engagement in our city next week. The company needs no introduction to the theatre goers. Mr. Kelly's attraction is without doubt the largest, strongest and best stock attraction on the road today. They carry everything that is need in the way of scenery, properties, and electric effects. It takes a whole car to carry the show and their baggage to the different towns on their route. Mr. Kelly will open his engagement Monday, Dec. 13, with the pretty musical comedy production "The Little Simp." Ladies will be admitted free on Monday night under the usual conditions. See Kelly and learn to laugh. Seats sale at Dunn's drug store.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known local druggist says everybody is using old-time recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and dr w this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

MINORITY HAS EASY SAILING

Nothing to Do in Congress but Oppose the Democrats.

REPUBLICANS DISLIKE ROLE

After Having Experienced Sixteen Years of Control They Grow Irritable Under Democratic Rule—Leaders in House and Senate Must Be Entirely Different Types of Men.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 10.—[Special.]—The minority party in congress always has an easy time. Then why should it attempt to become a majority party and take control of affairs?

That query came into my mind as I watched the easy manner in which the Republicans went forward with their part in organizing congress. All they have to do is oppose what the majority wants—not a difficult task. The minority has only to complain, kick, protest and criticize. That is all it can do unless the majority becomes split.

But the Republicans, having had sixteen years of leadership and control, do not like the minority role. They want to run the government, run the senate and run the house. They are going to make a great effort to regain control next year.

Mild and Bitter.

The Republican leadership in the senate is mild. In the house it is bitter. Senator Gallinger is an easy boss, as all senate leaders must be if they really lead for any length of time. If Aldrich had been an easy boss in his later days his leadership of the senate would not have been discredited. Jim Mann is the same driver he has been in two previous congresses when he has been the minority leader.

I was reading about old Thad Stevens the other day and how he drove his party associates when he was the leader of the house. I am thinking that Jim Mann has some of the same characteristics. A leader in the house, however, must have some power and exert it or conditions would be more chaotic.

The Devil and the Deep Sea.

"Oh, yes," remarked Senator Shafroth of Colorado, "the president is popular in our section. Of course our people do not like his conservation policy, but we are between the devil and the deep sea on that subject. When the Republicans are in power they are for a national conservation policy and so are the Democrats. We can get relief from neither party. Meanwhile our water powers remain undeveloped and our country suffers. The people of the west, the pioneers who made that section, want some of the benefits of the resources which they have developed."

An Administration Man.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska says cleverly that he has always been an administration man. With Bryan in the opposition it is the most natural thing in the world for Hitchcock to march in the Wilson procession. "I have always been an administration man," said the senator. "I was opposed to the ship purchase bill, but I am always an administration man."

And yet at one time support of that bill was a test of party loyalty.

Sees Election Money.

"Any party which supports large expenditures for military supplies will be sure of plenty of money with which to run the next campaign," asserted Senator Norris of Nebraska. "Any one who opposes that 'preparedness' program will find opposition at home with plenty of money to back it."

Senator Norris will probably make these statements a little more emphatic when the debate begins on the military program.

Two Hours' Talk.

Among the suggestions concerning closure in the senate is that speeches should be limited to two hours for each senator. It seems strange that such propositions should come from men who have talked for two days.

One reason advanced for closure is that it will enable senators to get away from Washington for long vacations. As they are paid whether they stay or not, it seems that it might be well for them to attend all sessions.

Looking Forward.

"In ten years there will be no liquor question to deal with." This remark came from a keen observer when prohibition was being discussed. "By that time it will not be a question of local option in the states or districts; there will be national prohibition and the question removed from politics."

The man may be exaggerating the situation, but the first move in that direction is prohibition in the District of Columbia. After that it will be only a step to a national amendment.

Looks Good to Clark.

Senator Clark of Wyoming stands third in long service in the senate. He is ranked by Gallinger and Lodge. Clark will be a candidate for reelection next year and looks forward to a successful campaign. He has been entertaining Governor Kendrick of his state for several days, although it is said that Kendrick may become a candidate against the senator. Clark has been in congress since the Fifty-first congress, when he represented the state as a delegate.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

EQUITY CONVENTION ENDS

Senator La Follette Takes Fling at Special Interests.

St. Paul, Dec. 10.—Merely obtaining an open market for selling grain and other farm products never will by itself bring about the benefits hoped for from it, Senator La Follette told 6,000 members of the American Society of Equity when he addressed the closing session of the annual convention. Such a result, the Wisconsin man said, must be accompanied by establishing of fair markets for commodities that farmers have to buy and by doing away with all special interests.

LABOR URGES WORLD PEACE

Call for Congress Suggests Human Welfare Ranks First.

New York, Dec. 10.—Doubtful of Henry Ford's ability to stop the war, the executive council of the American Federation of Labor has sent a letter urging all international trades unions in the country to endorse a plan for holding a world labor peace congress on the ground that human welfare ranks above all else.
